

A unique experience in the magical atmosphere of Florence

Traveling and discovering foreign cultures are passions we share with our guests. We believe that language is the key that opens new worlds and for this reason, we are pleased to offer you

Choose to spend a week or a week-end in Florence Park Palace and take a language course in Italian surrounded by the elegant and tranquil atmosphere of our villa!

Practical, efficient and enjoyable, fm36 is a dynamic and introductory approach to the study of foreign languages. The method reproduces the mental processes we enact when learning our mother tongue language, aiding you to begin speaking in a foreign language from the first lesson, without dependence on writing or dictionaries.

With fm36 you learn to perceive the world around you in a new language associating sounds to meaning; and objects and situations with words and expressions through your five senses: hearing, sight, touch, taste and smell.
